

Diamond Shaped Paper Garlands

BEST AND CHEAPEST DECORATION YET PRODUCED.

View of Garland Partly Open.

No. 5064-H.—One of the finest, neat and most effective decorations ever devised. It is made of imported tissue paper of a dark "Christmas green," and red. Each Garland is twelve feet long when extended.

They are easy to handle. When closed they occupy little space. Their extreme lightness reduces transportation charges to minimum, thereby cheapening cost to the purchaser. After use they can be quickly closed into compact form and thus readily preserved for future occasions. The possibilities of this device are almost without limit. For decorating churches, schoolrooms, halls or private residences, these Garlands may be used with the finest effect, their flexibility permitting the carrying out of many different ideas.

Price.—Each Garland (12 feet in length) 10 cents, by mail, prepaid.

One dozen Garlands (144 feet) $1.00, prepaid. In ordering mention No. 5064-H.

OUR FESTOONING.

Superior to any other material for producing a brilliant decorative effect. More elegant than real Christmas green and less costly to start with. Is much cleaner; does not dry up and litter the carpet. Can be used again and again from year to year for an indefinite period. One investment will avoid the usual annual expense for Christmas green.

Beside using for festooning, may be easily made into various designs—monograms, mottoes, letters, figures, etc.

Three Colors: Solid Green, No. 3049-H; Solid White, No. 3048-H; Red, White and Blue, No. 3015-H.

When not otherwise requested, all orders will be filled with solid green.

Price, per roll for ten yards, 25 cents, charges prepaid by us. Owing to the lightness and strength of this festooning, it is easily put into position, and gives a harmonious and beautiful effect, when wound around letters, ball, and other decorations.

Order Liberally. Nothing else in the line of decorative material will give anywhere near the satisfaction for the money invested.

$3.15 pays for 150 yards (15 rolls), prepaid which will go far towards making a large church look delightful.

NOTE.—This festooning being made of light tissue paper, may be somewhat crushed in transportation, but can be quickly restored by passing the roll through the hands. Sections should be joined together by tying the ends with a bit of cord.

IN MEMORY OF OUR DEPARTED PUPIL AND CLASSMATE,

Master Harvey Haigler, Who Departed
This Life Nov. 28, at 11:25,
p. m., Age, 15 Years.

The Grim Reaper has come in our midst and borne from our ranks our beloved pupil and classmate, Harvey Haigler, who was a member of St. John's A. M. E. Church and Sunday School, and belonged to Class No. 11. As a pupil he was bright, thoughtful, steady and obedient. At all times he was attentive to his lessons and almost heartbroken when he could not answer the questions asked him by his teacher.

Harvey was always found in his seat at the opening of Sunday school and never absent, save when sickness or something unavoidable prevented, which was seldom. He expressed to his aunt a desire to attend Sunday school his last Sunday on earth.

As a classmate, young Haigler was gentle, kind and generous, ever willing to render assistance wherever it was needed, and deeds of kindness to all. In his death the Sunday school has lost a true and punctual scholar—the class a kind and gentle classmate, the teacher a gentle, loving and obedient pupil—"Gone but not forgotten, but our loss is heaven's gain." And, Whereas, God in his all-wise providence has taken from our midst our beloved pupil and classmate; be it Resolved, That we submit to the will of Him who has transplanted our lamented companion to the Sunday school above, with other bright stars, to await our coming; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be sent to the bereaved family. Respectfully submitted—J. H. Love, Ewin Laird, Robt. Holland, Theodore Williams, Solomon Billips, Thos. Dickerson, John Smith, Classmates; Miss Lena A. Hughes, Teacher; Mr. D. A. Hart, Superintendent; Rev. B. G. Gordon, Pastor.

NOTICE.

All who are interested in Roger Williams University and would like to assist in getting ready to open the school by January 1, 1908, may do so by furnishing any of the following-named articles: bedsteads, mattresses, chairs, tables, towels and quilts. The names of the donors will be kept in reserve for reference. Parties wishing to give may call at the New Roger Williams at any time. Prof. J. W. Johnson, president, or Rev. A. O. Kenney will be at the building to receive names and goods that may be donated.

SOMEBODY HAS MADE A GREAT BLUNDER.

Discharging of Negro Troops Shows Mistake from Some Source.

Washington, Dec. 10.—If the bullets were not fired from the rifles of the Negro soldiers in the Brownsville riot, the President is guilty of a gross injustice to the disbanded troops. If the bullets were fired from the rifles of Negro troops in the night outrage, then the war department has accepted ordinance that falls short of specifications and is of inferior grade.

These are the horns of the dilemma upon which the administration finds itself impaled, as a result of the chemical analysis of two of the bullets fired on the night of the now famous Brownsville riot. The analysis was reported to the senate committee on military affairs in a meeting to-day. The committee had seven bullets dug from buildings and posts. Those bullets were fired from rifles the night of the Brownsville shooting. An analysis has shown that they do not conform to the specifications and regulations of bullets furnished the army. Senator Foraker, who has led the fight against the President's program in the Brownsville case, is elated. The members of the senate military committee who were inclined to support the President's policy are now gravely in doubt as to the justice of his stand, and a complete reversal of form may come from the committee. While the investigation, so far as it has proceeded, tends to controvert the assertion made by the President's advisors, and to place him in the light of having committed rash and unjust action, at the same time all concerned say it is just as well to wait until a report is made on the other five bullets. Senator Foraker, who championed the cause of the Negro troops, had little to say during the committee's meeting. He merely chuckled to himself and allowed the administration's representatives on the committee to do the studying and talking.

"BLUE MONDAY" ON JO JOHNSTON AVENUE.

The denizens along Jo Johnston avenue, between Third and Fourth avenues, were treated to quite a deal of excitement about noon Monday. There was an attempted fight between a woman and man, which was nipped in the bud by a cop coming on the scene before the "mill" materialized into the genuine article. With the man in tow for the police station the officer had scarcely rounded the corner on Third avenue before two pugnacious little Misses went at each other hammer and tongs fashion and the curious crowd went wild. By the time the set-to was at its height every hovel and tenement in that soft and easy-going district had emptied their inmates into the street, and the hilarity of the crowd was something immense.

DEATH OF J. N. LEWIS.

Mr. J. N. Lewis died at his home on Donelson street December 1, 1907. The funeral took place at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church on Tuesday, the 3rd. He was a member of the church and had been superintendent of the Sunday school for 14 years. He was also teacher of Class No. 3.

THE GLOBE MANAGER LOSES HIS CHRISTMAS TURKEY.

Mr. D. A. Hart, manager of the Nashville Globe, had a great misfortune last week. Early in November he ordered some turkeys from Adams Station for his family use during the holidays. He had picked out one fine specimen and was fattening it for Christmas.

One night last week the neighbors' dogs kept up a constant barking but no particular attention was paid to the noise. But next morning when Mr. Hart went to feed his choice turkey he was made to understand it all. His Christmas bird was gone, and all he could find was a feather here and there up the alley. The fowl has never returned and it is supposed that some member of the human society decided that it was cruel to keep a turkey in the yard and feed it regularly.

BISHOP TYREE ARRIVED HOME TUESDAY NIGHT.

Bishop Evans Tyree, who has been out of the city several weeks holding conferences in Oklahoma and Texas, returned home Tuesday night. He came direct from Waxahatchie, Texas, which was the seat of his last Conference. Mrs. Tyree accompanied him on the trip. They were both looking well when they alighted from the train at the Union Station. The Bishop said he had a very successful year considering the condition of the country financially at this time.

NASHVILLE MAN A DIRECTOR.

News has reached Nashville of the election of a Nashville man as director of a big business concern in the state of Florida. The name of the corporation is the National Mercantile, Realty and Improvement Company, located at Jacksonville, Fla. This institution has a capital stock of $500,000 with a considerable amount of this paid up. It was at their last meeting in November that a new board of directors was elected. Mr. Henry A. Boyd, of this city, being a stockholder, but not present at the meeting, was unanimously elected as a member of the board of directors. The officers of the concern are—Dr. M. J. Anderson, President, Tampa, Fla.; D. Sylvester Bryant, Vice President, Jacksonville, Fla.; S. M. Dennis, Treasurer, Jacksonville, Fla.; Frank W. Lancaster, Secretary and Manager, Jacksonville, Fla. Board of Directors—Dr. M. J. Anderson, Tampa, Fla.; D. Sylvester Bryant, Jacksonville, Fla.; Frank W. Lancaster, Jacksonville, Fla.; S. M. Dennis, Jacksonville, Fla.; Dr. J. A. Butler, Jacksonville, Fla.; H. A. Boyd, Nashville, Tenn.; J. S. P. Watson, Miami, Fla.; R. J. Mitchell, Ocala, Fla.; Mrs. Jennie Terrell, Cocoa, Fla.; William Keys Madison, Fla.; Andy Garvin, Madison, Fla.; H. Holman, Tampa, Fla.

The above directors, except Mr. Boyd, served during the year 1907.

The Company has some valuable property in the state and in the city of Jacksonville and has depositories with the City Savings Bank at Tampa, State Bank of Arcadia, Fla.; Bank of Crystal River, Crystal River, Fla.; Gainesville National Bank, Gainesville, Fla.; Bank of Dunnellon, Dunnellon, Fla. The Capital Trust and Investment Company of Jacksonville is the headquarters for the depositors. The home office and the new building of the Company is a five-story brick. A very creditable showing has been made since its organization. The placing of a Nashville man on the board of directors is a distinct recognition for this city and the state.

DOES NOT OWN "THE NEW YORK AGE."

The story has been circulating freely that Dr. B. T. Washington is part owner of the New York Age. Both that paper and Dr. Washington make strenuous denial of the truth of the statement. Some such statement may have appeared in these columns some weeks ago based on information which at that time seemed to justify the statement. Our attention has recently been called to the following copy of a letter from Mr. Fortune to Mr. Scott, which shows that Mr. Fred R. Moore, and not Dr. Washington, is owner of the New York Age.

Maple Hall Red Bank, N. J.
Sept. 7, 1907.

Dear Scott:

Recognizing the shattered condition of my health and the imperative urgency of taking a long rest, on the 4th instant, I transferred my interest in the New York Age Publishing Company to Fred R. Moore. A meeting of stockholders was called for yesterday afternoon to elect new officers and define a new policy.

(Signed)

Timothy Thomas Fortune.

NOTICE

The well known COAL DEALER JAMES McGOODE, is delivering coal daily wholesale. Come at once and give me your order for the winter. Office 409 Eighth Avenue, North.

December 4, thanking us for our efforts. He states that there was but one mistake: we failed to state that Governor Mickey was the son of Mercia Mickey; so the Globe offers this correction, and would request that any information concerning the parties mentioned should be sent to Mr. King Bird, whose post-office address is New Castle, State of Washington.

STOCKHOLDERS' ANNUAL MEETING.

The stockholders of the One Cent Savings Bank will be notified within the next few days of the coming stockholders meeting, which is to be held on the second Monday in January, 1908, in the director's room of the bank. A full attendance is expected. A deal of interest is created in these annual meetings because of the steady growth of the institution. The teller states that many of the notices sent out to stockholders have not been delivered heretofore, and that a general call will be issued through the columns of the Globe about ten days prior to the meeting.

BISHOP LEE AT ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH.

Bishop B. F. Lee, of Wilberforce, Ohio, will speak at St. John A. M. E. Church on Friday night. Rev. B. G. Gordon announced Sunday and Tuesday night that the Bishop had a special message for the congregation and urged that every one present inform their friends and the members not present to come out to-night. Rev. Gordon is gaining favor with the people of St. John as was shown by the way they responded to an appeal for funds recently. They held a very successful rally Sunday, Dec. 8, and raised more money than had been by that congregation on one day for several years.
